The House.

Austin, Texas, January 12.-After prayer and roll call the speaker naked McFall if he had decided what course he had determined upon in regard to his request that McRell name two members to represent him on the committee to investigate Congress-on the committee to investigate Congressman Bailey's course in the Waters-Pierre Oil company matter.

McFall replied that precedent and paritamentary procedure required that the mover of a resolution be a member of the resulting committee; and since he had, by the Garner substitute, been made wholly responsible for the charges and investigation, he thought there was additional reason why be should be on the committee. But since the speaker had taken it upon himself to decide that he should not be a member of
